

WRITTEN EXAM:

GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY:

Present continuous for future arrangement

Going to for plans

Would like

May/Might

Infinitive of purpose

Must/Have to

Imperatives

Should

Adjectives with ed/ing

Past simple and continuous (when-while)

Adverbs of manner

Linking words

Will for prediction

First conditional

Compound nouns

Present perfect (all forms)

Verbs with TO, ABOUT, FOR

WRITING AND SPEAKING

Talking about future plans and arrangements

Writing about immediate future

Writing and e-mail about your weekend

Talking about obligations

Asking for and giving opinions

Narrating a story/ anecdote

Asking for permission and offering to do things

Writing and talking about music

Talking about the weather

An e-mail

Talking and writing about the future

Writing and talking about technology

Asking and talking about experiences in the past

Writing about experiences

Agreeing and disagreeing

Making compliments

A biography

ORAL EXAM

One minute presentation

Picture exploitation

A topic to talk about

Supplementary Readers: THE SECRET OF THE STONES