

WRITTEN EXAM: GRAMMAR AND VOCABULARY:

Present perfect simple with time adverbials
Present perfect and past simple
Defining relative clauses with who, which, that, whose, where Too – enough
Ask for and give directions
Too many, too much, not enough
Used to
Echo questions
Past ability: could and was/were able to
Verbs of action
Past perfect simple
Present simple passive
Past simple passive
Non defining relative clauses: who, whose, which, where Linking phrases
Will/won't/May/Might for predictions
First conditional with "If" and "Unless"
First conditional with "when/ as soon as"
Negative adjectives with prefixes "un-in,and im-"
Reported Speech
Second conditional
-ed and -ing adjectives
"I wish" with past simple
Linkers: although and however
So and Such
Verbs with infinitive or gerund
Auxiliary verb with "so and neither"
Rules and obligations: must and have to
Should/ Ought to / Had better
Injuries and medical treatment
Adjectives with prepositions
Good at/ Proud of

WRITING AND SPEAKING

Writing about experiences
Describe your city or town
An interview about a problem
Ask for and give directions
Offer, accept or refuse, persuade
Retell a story
Discuss a topic you have just read
Give and react to opinions
About holidays in the future
An informal letter
Describing a person
Imaginary situations. Your future ambitions.
Remind, promise, reassure and offer
Predictions
Make and respond to requests
Ask for and give advice

ORAL EXAM

One minute presentation
Picture exploitation
A topic to discuss
Supplementary Readers: Hamlet, Prince of Denmark / The street lawyer

